Congratulations

I recently met up with Rob Shorrocks in the Clubhouse. He was part of the Bath University Team, which won the British Universities Fleet Racing Championship last year in Weymouth. It's good to see long established members of the Club keeping the flag flying!

Marian and Lucy

The two winners in the Easter Bonnet Parade.

The Quad Bike

The Quad bike is now insured for FOUR named drivers. These are, Adrian Williams, Gus Lees, Maurice Wigzell and John Shorrocks.

Under no circumstances must any one, other than these four, drive this vehicle off the club premises.

FOR SALE

2 LIFE JACKETS- £10 each- to fit teenager/small adult.

Wet Suit- knee length- good condition- £25- Ladies/Youths (38)- red & black.

Welsh Assembly Helps!

Due to the generosity of Rhodri Morgan and his boys, two former Commodores have been given assistance with their transport costs to Weatherspoons each Friday evening. Congratulations to John Nicol and Phil Wilkes on getting their bus passes!

Important dates from Mays Racing Programme

Sunday 18th @ 11.00 Peter Robinson Memorial Trophy and the First Open Handicap Meeting
Saturday 24th @ 10.00 CYRC/Topper Open Meeting
Sunday 25th @ 10.00 1st Race of the Williams Series

Check your programme carefully. By the end of May the Salisbury series will be completed but you still have a chance in the Wednesday night Chamber of Trade Series. To win a series takes consistency in turn outs and performance.

Winners

First Out Trophy Jill Shorrocks

Leaders

Salisbury Series (after 3 races) Gus Lees

Chamber of Trade (after 1 race) Alistair Dickson

Easter Tankard postponed
