

Llandudno Sailing Club

News and Views

Number
27
February
2005

Contributions should be sent to Ruth Brown - ruthlessinthebay@hotmail.com
Web site: <http://www.llandudno-sailing-club.org.uk>

FRIDAY 18th FEBRUARY at 8 PM
Ruth invites you to a
MURDER MYSTERY
EVENING

£2.50 to include refreshments

Murder in the Bar
(work out who 'did it!')
Dancing in the Ballroom
(spot prizes)

Nibbles in the Snug

'HAPPY Hour' - 8pm to 9pm
ADULTS ONLY

Please e-mail Ruth if you are able to attend

Regional Race Officers Conference

The Club are hosting this one day event organised by the RYA Race Management Coordinator for North Wales, Mike Butterfield.
Compulsory for those already certificated as RYA Race Officers, it is also open to any others interested in attending. Some interesting topics; updates on how the new rules work; etc. £10 including coffee and lunch.
Register with Mike Butterfield.

Bar Duty

Maurice Wigzell has volunteered to act as Bar Stock Manager. Maurice delayed his offer until after Christmas, hoping that one of the younger members of the Club would volunteer!!

4 th . Feb.	Phil Wilkes
11 th . Feb.	Phil Northam
18 th . Feb.	Pete Richardson
25 th . Feb.	Dave Burke
4 th . March	Adrian Jones

Work Parties 2005

Sunday 6 Feb 2005 10.00 to lunchtime

Sunday 6 March 2005 10.00 to lunchtime

The work party on Sunday 9th Jan attracted a large number of people who helped to tidy up and generally start the preparation for the coming season.

Although there are two dates listed above, anyone who cannot make those times but would like to assist by doing a specific job in their own time should contact Gus. He has a long list of items for completion before the season starts.

Beetle and Bingo Evening

Twenty members enjoyed an evening of beetle and Bingo organised by Jacqui. Thanks to all who attended and again to the ladies for the refreshments

Dates! Dates! Dates!

14 th Feb @ 1845	Sailing Committee
@ 1930	Management Committee
20 th Feb	WYA AGM @ Newtown, Powys
20 th March	First race of 2005
1 st April	Launching Party
30 th April	Training starts

Engines

The Sailing Committee are having a clear out of old equipment. This includes some of the old engines, which are now surplus to requirements. If anyone wishes to look at them before they are removed, please contact either Gus or Maurice Wigzell. Best time to view is Sunday morning.

Winter Programme

Friday February 4 th @ 8pm	'Athens Olympics Sailing Film' part 2 - Tony Lockett
Sunday 6 th . February	Repeat of Sailing Olympic film @ 12 noon
Saturday February 12 th	Regional Race Officers Conference @ 10am
Friday February 18 th @ 8pm	'Murder Mystery Evening' and 'Happy Hour' – Ruth Brown
Friday March 4 th @ 8pm	Talk on the 'Greenland Expedition'- John Pailthorpe
Friday March 11 th @ 8pm	Club Race Officer Refresher Course- Tony Lockett
Friday April 1 st @ 7pm 8pm	Training sign-on followed by Launching Party

Olympic Film

Twenty-five members arrived at the Club to watch the Official ISAF Film of the 2004 Athens Olympic Regatta. All 25 should be congratulated on turning out on such an awful wet and windy night. Thanks to Mo, Liz and Jacqui for the sandwiches.

Due to popular demand this part will be shown again on Sunday 6th Feb at lunchtime, immediately after the Working Party. The film is two hours long, so those wishing to see the beginning should be in their seats at 12.00 prompt.

Olympic Film – part 2

Friday 4th February prompt at 20.00

Wanted

Sailing clothing suitable for a six year old intending to start this summer.

Contact Tony Lockett – 01492 548012 or email: AntonyLockett@compuserve.com